SENIOR MANAGEMENT AND BOARD CHANGES

Millennium Services Group Ltd (ASX:MIL) advises that Craig Hanley has resigned from the position of Chief Executive Officer and also from the Board of the Company and all its subsidiaries, effective immediately.

The Board wishes him well for the future.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Millennium subsidiary Airlite Group, Steve Willis, has been appointed as Acting Chief Executive Officer. Millennium acquired the highly successful Airlite Group business in 2016. Established in 1967, Airlite has grown from its base in WA to now having a strong national presence. Steve Willis has been with Airlite for over 25 years, the last 6 years as its CEO. He has extensive experience in managing a large-scale retail and commercial cleaning, integrated services and property maintenance business.
