

05 December 2019

MILLENNIUM SIGNS LONG-TERM CONTRACTS WORTH $118M

Highlights

- New and renewed long-term contracts with two existing major clients secured until 2024 (including extensions)
- Renewed cleaning contract with a prestigious ASX listed retailer with over 60 major retail sites across Australia
- Additionally, Millennium has signed both new and renewed cleaning and security contracts with another major ASX listed shopping centre group, to provide cleaning and security to 8 major shopping centre locations across Australia until 2024 (including extensions)
- Total combined value of contracts of $118M over the duration of the contract terms
- Contracts commence immediately

Millennium Services Group (ASX:MIL) is pleased to announce that it has extended its contract to provide cleaning services to one of Australia's most prestigious retailers until 2024 (including extension options).

In addition, Millennium has also signed new and renewed cleaning and security contracts with a major shopping centre group to 2024 (including extensions).

The combined value of these contracts which are with Myer and Stockland is $118M over the duration of their contract terms.

The new retail contract will see Millennium delivering clean, safe and inviting environments on behalf of our retail client at over sixty locations across Australia.

The major shopping centre contract expands on the services already provided at three existing sites to include both cleaning and security, and extends our current cleaning agreements at a further five sites.

Darren Boyd, Millennium CEO said, "We have been working closely with these clients over the past few years and these newly signed long-term contracts are a demonstration of the high level of satisfaction by our clients in the quality of the services that the Millennium team has been able to deliver".

"Our recent successes with these and other major clients, further strengthen Millennium's stable and long-term contract book." Mr Boyd said.

"Our clients have confidence that the Millennium team share their commitment to delivering exceptional destinations for their customers. These new contracts reflect the value that our clients see in our partnership with them as we continue to focus on the quality of our services to them, while at the same time driving sustainable growth for the Company and our shareholders."

For further information please contact:

Michael Constable
CFO
Millennium Services Group
Ph: 1300 240 132